

MACQUARIE JOURNAL OF BUSINESS LAW VOL 5, 2008

Call for Papers

Macquarie University's Department of Business Law international business law journal, Macquarie Journal of Business Law (MqJBL), is issuing a CALL FOR PAPERS for its next issue. This innovative journal provides a forum for scholarly dialogue concerning both the global and regional commercial law issues.

MqJBL is an invaluable reference source on a wide range of legal issues such as Australia business law, international trade law, foreign commercial law, trade and the environment, and other topics relevant to the development and content of international and comparative business law.

The MqJBL is a refereed journal incorporating a high standard of peer-reviewed academic works. The editorial board is comprised of distinguished experts in the field of international business law. The Journal is supported by its patrons, the Hon Justice Kevin Lindgren, Federal Court of Australia & the Hon Mr Roderick Meagher, QC, Retired, NSW Supreme Court of Appeal. Papers submitted will have feedback approximately one month after submission.

Contributions are sought from a wide range of authors, including academics, leading practitioners and students. If you wish to contribute, please contact the editor, Professor Peter Gillies (contact details below).

Contributions should be prepared in accordance with the 'Instructions to Authors' which are available at: <http://www.law.mq.edu.au/html/MqJBL/contrib.htm>,

Submissions should be sent by the end of July 2008.

If you have any enquiries concerning the MqJBL please feel free to contact:
