I have the honor to conclude a definite action made by me. I am an agent of the interest of G. Forster Esq.

The instance of violence committed by the person of the lower part of the farm. The upper parts of the farm have been devastated utterly.

I altogether with impunity. The dislike, indeed, absolute unkindness of the people to go after them primarily driven from the high responsibility attached to any violence committed on them. But I am a man so deeply interested in this topic that I cannot do by any means be an unprejudiced writer - hence therefore refrain altogether from remark. I throw up the Constancy of such a topic.
