

(Copy)

And the said John Kinchela Esquire His Majesty's Attorney General of New South Wales aforesaid who for our said Sovereign Lord the King in this behalf prosecuteth as to the said Plea of Guilt the said Jack Congo Murrell by him above pleaded as aforesaid for our said Sovereign Lord the King saith that the said Plea and the matter therein contained are not sufficient in Law to — preclude the Court here from their Jurisdiction to hear and determine the Murder and Felony mentioned and specified in the said Information and above charged upon him the said Jack Congo Murrell in and by the said Information Wherefore for want of a proper and sufficient answer in this behalf he prayeth judgment and that the said Jack Congo Murrell may answer in Court here to our said Sovereign Lord the King touching and concerning the premises aforesaid.

John Kinchela

Atty General

And the said Jack Congo Murrell doth the like Wherefore &c —

1835

In the year 1835

the King

to

Jack Congo-Muncie

Copy Summer

1835

1835