

24
45A

Friday 19th February 1836

Rep. v. Cong. Murrell Aboriginal

Warrant on Deceased

Prof. Mr. Murrell Chief Justice Tates

Mr Justice Dowling

Mr Justice Wata

Mr Stephen for the Prisoner

The Prisoner stands charged with Murder at Windsor a place certainly within the Jurisdiction of the Court

Do certain authorities and some Blackstones (Hawry S.C. & others) Put no law in strictness except Prisoner Case

1840.

Occasionally
all English laws are then in force Right of Consistent holding out to them This place was not desert or unoccupied

They are innocent in destruction of the British Government is their hostility.

Protection is not afforded to them Blacks: Protection includes

& necessarily involves, Subjection, Self-detracts that the Prisoner is considered as in the peace of our land & they

therefore

Coke on 1st Ed.

Key to the case

Rep. v. Sawyer Richard Murrell

C.J. How far it can be alleged that a man in France was in the King's Peace

2. Saldaña ~~the~~ 441. held Mexico a congress County the laws do not automatically cease?

Chen's Reports citing Calous Case

Inconvenience of holding them Blacks subjects of Mexico
In such a case they may appeal from Courts

Being citizens for personal reasons. In

Again the Court must protect the Person of trial from the wrath of his own Tribe We don't understand their laws -

We cannot promise a date to send them

(and if ~~black~~ falling a White The Tribes will not take the punishment of the Black & therefore it is reasonable that the Court should try the Black -

Veroin subject of a British Subject killing a Black

Two principle Wales.

As Allegiance

Mr Attorney General

Charged with a Murder in the populous part of the Territory of the Colony, within the Jurisdiction of the Court.

Calous Case

Suppose a White kills a Black in the South & the Blacks take the White & subject him to their Customs of Spearing & the White undergoes the Spearing & escapes alive

Can this be pleaded in his to an inferior court
The White under the laws of his country for the murder

Judgment deferred

11th April 1836

Judgment delivered by Judge Burton -